Boo's Note:

My wonderful chefs are working from a kitchen which was built in the early 1900 hundreds "I am the oldest Bowls Club in Queensland, you know".

My chefs are amazing and they produce a fabulous product and are very open to working with guests who have special dietary requirements.

You can assist them by pre-ordering your platters with the service time you wish to have your platters delivered to your party.

There is always a little extra stock of some products if your needs have not been met on the day of your function.

*Cheers
Boo*
